Some of the things I cannot afford

To think an unkind thought of any one;
To be suspicious of the motive of any one;
To criticise or condemn any one for anything.
To listen to gossip;
To be anxious about anything;
To believe that there is a possibility of failure anywhere;
To dream when I should be doing;
To act when I should be waiting for the leading of Spirit;
To leave today's work until tomorrow;
To hold on to my last dollar when there is a good way to spend it;
To doubt for one moment that the Infinite is my storehouse and bank;
To forget that Jesus Christ has overcome all sin, sickness, poverty, death, (all that I have feared), that I may be free.

Some of the things I can afford

To send out love to every creature;
To know that the Divine works in all and through all;
To praise the Good in every individual and condition;
To speak kind words, silently and audibly;
To praise God, that I have all now;
To know that I succeed in whatever I undertake;
To take time to be quiet;
To do, when I know what is to be done, ignoring all seeming obstacles;
To make today's work cheerful service, leaving results to God;
To stop clinging to people, conditions, things, or money;
To know that I am the storehouse and bank of the Infinite, and a distributing centre;
To remember that Jesus Christ said: "It is the Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom," and "The kingdom of heaven is within you."

Veterans News

The reduction from 9.5 to 9 percent in the maximum allowable interest rate on GI home loans could mean as much as $9.90 per month savings to the avarage veteran home buyer, the VA Regional Office in Roanoke commented today.

Reconsiders Affiliation

Lynchburg, Va., December 3, 1974. . A. R. Clements, President and Chief Executive Officer of Fidelity American Bankshares, Inc., and Jesse L. Bridges, President of Security Finance Corporation of Spartanburg, S. C., jointly announced today that the Boards of Directors of their respective companies have mutually agreed to re-examine the April, 1973, decision to affiliate the two companies. Both Mr. Bridges and Mrs. Clements cited as reasons for the decision, the uncertain economic climate, delays in obtaining final regulatory approval for the affiliation, recent policy restraints upon the bank holding company industry by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to restrict expansion of non-bank activities, and depressed stock prices.

The affiliation, which had been expected to take place on December 1, has therefore been delayed. Both men indicated that they expected to be in a position to make a final decision within 30 days.

Fidelity American Bankshares, Inc. is a multi-bank holding company headquartered in Lynchburg, Virginia. As of September 30, 1974, it and operated 16 banks held total assets of million. Security Corporation of Spartanburg multi-state consumer chain operating 130 with some $15.6 million assets as of Septem 1974.
